What's ahead in 2014?

2013 was a landmark year. Alex Tuttle and Jeff Yick, each with their unique and complementary expertise in real estate and construction transactions and litigation, teamed up to create a specialized firm servicing each component of a development project. On the horizon in 2014, they will be involved in a significant number of new commercial and high-end residential projects. They will also be further expanding the legal and business services offered to new and existing clients.

Who we are and what we offer...

- We counsel commercial real estate acquisitions, leasing, strategic distressed asset restructuring, and complex work-out negotiations.
